

By the occasion of the celebration of th 184 years of José Maria da Fonseca and the 100th birthday of Fernando Soares Franco, member of the 5h generation leading José Maria da Fonseca, the family has decided to release 184 bottles of Moscatel Roxo de Setúbal Superior 1918.

TASTING NOTES

Color: Very dark brown, depth of black and very green hues (indication of being very old).

Aroma: Extremely complex and in constant evolution. Coffee, toasted bread, cigar smoke, iris flower, balsamic, acacia, dates, caramel, honey, spices (lots of black pepper, some cloves and saffron).

Palate: Very elegant, constantly evolving (as in aroma), very soft, excellent sugar/acidity ratio.

Finish: Very long.

ANALYSES

Alcohol: 16,5% | Residual Sugar: 288 g/l | Acidity: 8.25 g/l tartaric | pH: 3.27